

From 1997 geologic map by Wilhelms (I-2442)

Note that north is directly to the top on the images, but to the top right on the map. This accounts for the difference in orientation. White line on image roughly corresponds to rim of crater as mapped at left.